5. Application Procedure

◇ How to Apply

To apply, a guarantor, Japanese or non-Japanese living and working in Tokyo or nearby, is necessary except for Japanese nationals applying to Japanese Language Teacher Training Course. For more details about guarantor, please see "7. Guarantor."

The responsibility of the guarantor is to bring all the necessary application documents the applicant prepared to Tokyo Office, B.I.L. Submission by mail is not accepted.

For applicants living in Taiwan, Korea and Thailand, please apply from Bunka Taipei, Seoul or Bangkok office.

Applicants in China without a Tokyo guarantor, you may contact agencies in Beijing or Tianjin. Please see the admission guide in Chinese. *Agencies have their own requirements and handling fees: thus, please inquire about details directly to them.

Applicants in Indonesia without a Tokyo guarantor, you can apply to the agency listed below. *Agencies have their own requirements and handling fees: thus, please inquire about details directly to them.

For those applicants who applied through our offices or the agencies and were accepted as students, B.I.L. will act as a guarantor to study at B.I.L. Please note it applies only to studying at B.I.L. and it does not apply for things outside B.I.L. such as when renting an apartment, buying cell phones, obtaining a job and others. Please consult us about the guarantor system if living in a country other than Taiwan, Korea, Thailand, China and Indonesia.

6. Application Instructions & Materials

Important:

※ First consult B.I.L. or overseas office staffs for B.I.L. admission. Please do not send application materials without the consultation.

※ You are responsible for verifying that all required forms and documents have been sent by the appropriate deadlines set by the consultation with school staffs.

※ If we find any documents, information, signatures, etc missing or incorrect, we cannot accept nor process your application.

※ Please make sure information given in one form should be the same in all other forms. Also information in one place must be relevant to information given in other documents.

※ There is an application period but B.I.L. may designate earlier deadline for immigration reasons. Please follow our instruction.

※ Please note that B.I.L. screening of application materials must be completed by the end of the application period. That means you need to start contacting us in the beginning of the application period and submit all the materials with enough time for us to do the screening.

When your application is incomplete by the designated deadline, it will not be accepted because delay to file application at the immigration services bureau will cause delay in the notification of Certificate of Eligibility application result by the bureau, causing delay in your visa issuance, arrival in Japan and study at B.I.L.

※ B.I.L. and the immigration services bureau will not return or lend you anything once submitted. There is no exception. You should make your own copies.
